

PAPERS TO APPEAR IN FORTHCOMING ISSUES

The following articles are among those presently accepted for publication in Historia Mathematica. Their order in this list does not necessarily reflect the order in which they will appear in future issues of the journal.

Erhard Scholz (Gesamthochschule Wuppertal): "Herbart's Influence on Bernhard Riemann"

Helena Pycior (University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee) "Early Criticism of the Symbolical Approach to Algebra"

Gert Schubring (University of Bielefeld) "Ansätze zur Begründung theoretischer Terme in der Mathematik--die Theorie des Unendlichen bei Johann Schultz"

Philip Enros (University of Toronto) "The Analytical Society (1812-1813): Precursor of the Renewal of Cambridge Mathematics"

Stephen Rodi (Austin Community College) "A History of the Stone-Weierstrass Theorem"

John Synoweic (Indiana University Northwest) "Distribution Theory as an Example of the Evolution of a Theory"

Jesper Lützen (Odense University) "Joseph Liouville's Contribution to the Theory of Integral Equations"

* * * * *

A Special Issue Devoted to Charles S. Peirce,
With Papers by:

Carolyn Eisele (New York City): "Mathematical Methodology in the Thought of Charles S. Peirce"

Max Fisch (Indiana University): "Peirce' Place in American Life"

Ernest Nagel (Columbia University): "Peirce' Place in Philosophy"

Hilary Putnam (Harvard University): "Peirce' Place in Logic"

* * * * *